

Activating an expired certification is not the same as renewal.

Certifications expire on December 31st annually

Following are the requirements for re-certification:

Within 90 days of expiration, (on or before 3/31) an expired certification may be renewed upon payment of renewal fee and late fee

Between 91 days and 24 months of expiration, former certification holder shall submit application for re-certification, the certification fee, attendance certificates for total of continuing education required for time frame since expiration, and exam application.

After 24 months of expiration, former certification holder shall apply for a new certification and take any required intro classes for the certification. Once classes have been completed the former certification holder shall submit application for re-certification, exam application, attendance certificates, and certification fee.

For questions regarding your specific circumstances, please contact our office via email to csstephens@ncowcicb.info or 336-202-3126
